MOUNTAIN MEETS TROUBLE.

NOTIFIED HE CAN RIDE NO MORE OVER THE NEW ORLEANS TRACKS.

Miss Delaney Defeats Al Muller and Hyperion II. —Alice, at Long Odds, Takes the Race for Two-Year-Olds.

New Orleans, La., January 7.—The judges' ruling against jockey George Mountain denying him the privilege of accepting mounts in future at the Fair Grounds and City Park, overshadowed interest in today's racing. The ruling is a sequel to the Pasadena-Old Honesty-Mountain episode, which occurred at City Park. Mountain some time ago announced that he would stop riding and return to Chicago, giving as a reason for this action that he was not in form and that a rest would do him good. The judges at that time were said to be investigating the Pasadena case and many at times hinted that Mountain had been told to depart. This Mountain denied. The officials seeking to emulate the eastern system of no-scandal policy, were quite willing to let Mountain depart and close the incident, but the rider's determination to remain and ride caused his undoing, for, immediately he accepted the mount on Dorothy Webb in today's opening race, he was sent for by the officials and told that he would not be allowed to ride at either the Fair Grounds or City Park. Mountain labored under the impression that he had been ruled off and informed any number of persons of this before he left the track. However, the privilege of the course has not been denied him, but it is likely that he will depart tomorrow for his home in Chicago. The official ruling against Mountain is signed by Judges McDowell and Shelly and is as follows: "In future jockey George Mountain will not be allowed to ride at either the City Park or Fair Grounds tracks."

Today's featureless card was marred by wretched track conditions and was responsible for many of the upsets that occurred.

The principal race was the fourth and went to Miss Delaney at a long price. She was fortunate to be in the best going throughout and had little difficulty in wearing down the poorly ridden Al Muller and the frequently knocked about Hyperion II. The latter was the betting choice and after suffering from interference stepped into a hole, which practically destroyed his chances.

Stupid riding on the part of R. McDaniel was directly responsible for the defeats of Constantia in the second race and Mortiboy in the last. He steered these two into the treacherous places, while the other riders avoided them by going a trifle wide where the footing was surer.

Favorites were beaten in all but the closing race. The chief upset came in the opener, when Alice, coupled in the betting with Lady Hammon as the Capo entry, and quoted at 25 to 1, came with a well-timed rush in the last sixteenth to finish a half length in advance of another long shot, Cunning.

The usual stunts by the green baby racers of running all over the track were enacted. Arionette, Holy Mass and Miss Hapsburg ran well and should soon break into the winning ranks.

After Nancy's victory in the third race she was bid up to $800, an advance of $300 over her entered price, and bought by Sam Louis.

Broken Melody proved much the best of a poor band in the second race, and won in a common canter.

Darling Dan and Banrida fought it out desperately through the stretch in the running of the fifth race, and the pair barely reached the finish heads apart before Brakespeare, which was gaining and would have been the winner in a few more strides.

The judges informed jockey Delaby that he would be denied the privilege of accepting mounts until further notice. Delaby asked permission to ride today, claiming that he was in good condition after his recent rest in Chicago. The judges, however, think otherwise and will keep him on the ground for some time. Delaby was suspended for a faulty ride on Okenite at City Park.

Starter Cassidy suspended jockey Conlin for six days, and jockeys Sumter, F. Burton and A. Martin for three days each for their disobedience at the post.

Izzy Hammerschlag arrived yesterday and joined the ranks of the layers. He will remain but a short time before going on to California.

F. A. Forsythe disposed of Constantia after her defeat in the second race for $300.

Jockey V. Powers has signed to ride for B. Vincent for the ensuing year. J. C. Cahn will have second call on him.

KEITH TWO-YEAR-OLDS AT HOME.

The four two-year-olds which J. F. & W. F. Keith, of Sturgeon, Mo., bought last week of James B. Haggin and James A. Eastin, were the bay colt by Greenan—Amaryllis and the bay filly by Paladin—Calve, bred at Elmendorf and the bay filly by Greenan—Dawning and the bay filly by Order—Rose Windoxy, which were bred by Mr. Eastin at his Lexington farm. The colt and three fillies have been shipped to their new home.

WALKER FINED FOR STARTING BOGUM.

Lameness of Horse Subject of Complaint—Alleviator Wins at Long Price.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 7.—When two members of the Humane Society entered the paddock today they saw Bogum in so lame a condition that they reported the fact to Judge Hamilton. He had the matter investigated and when he found the report to be true, he ordered Bogum excused and twenty minutes were allowed for a new book. Owner W. Walker was severely reprimanded for attempting to start a horse when so lame and was fined $100.

The first long shot of the season won today when Alleviator finished first in the opening race at 100 to 1. Many small bettors had small wagers on the gelding and a few of the books were hit hard.

Rey Hindoo was made the favorite in the third race, but finished a distant third. Creston, the winner, was in a contending position throughout and, overhauling Rosegal in the last sixteenth, outstayed her at the end, winning by a head. Rosegal set the pace to the end and the effort told on her in the closing strides.

The second favorite to win was Pacific Electric, which took the fourth race after leading all the way, never fully extended. Entrada, the second choice in the betting, finished an easy second.

The experience gained by the two-year-olds in their previous races stood them in good stead today, for they finished in front of all the non-starters. Aunt Aggie, from the stable of J. A. Bennet, was left at the post.

Eighteen books were in line today and did a big afternoon's business, possibly getting a little the better of the public.

The fine of $50 imposed on jockey Preston for easing up his mount, Giovanni Balerio, in the first race yesterday, has been ordered canceled by the judges after hearing his explanation. Preston's right hand is very sore, which makes it impossible for him to use a whip and help his mount along in the last strides.

NATIONAL VALUE OF THE THOROUGHBRED.

A representative of the Department of Agriculture at Washington has been in New York the past week in the capacity of a special investigator from the division known as the National Bureau of Animal Industry, for the purpose of securing reliable data regarding the thoroughbred for the forthcoming annual report of that governmental department. He has had access to the records of the Jockey Club and has made an exhaustive study of the workings of its registration department and the breeding bureau conducted under its auspices in the state of New York. This is the first direct official recognition the Jockey Club has received from the government since assuming the registration of every native-bred foal and thoroughbred imported into the country in a stud book. In this, the representative of the National Bureau of Animal Industry says, that the Jockey Club in this department alone has discharged an invaluable service to the horse breeding industry of the country.

He found the stud book contained a record perfect in every detail of about 60,000 thoroughbreds, giving accurately the breeding and ownership of every foal and also the registration of color and individual marking of each and every animal.

Following the thoroughbred as he passes from the breeding farm to the scenes of activities of his maturer years, the statistics show the immense commercial value of the thoroughbred as a race horse. Last year, as near as the figures made can be had with accuracy, there were in training on the several race courses throughout the country no less than 7,500 horses, for the maintenance of which there was expended the sum of $8,212,500, or an average per diem cost of $3 to the owners. No account in this estimate, which is compiled from returns of inquiries, is made of salaries for trainers, transportation, jockeys, agents and license fees or the hundred and one other expenses which are necessarily incidental to racing. Of this $8,212,500, it is estimated that one-half of it reached the agriculturist for produce of his farm in the purchase of foodstuffs for the stable.

FLORIDA RACING BEGINS IN FEBRUARY.

The running meeting at Tampa, Florida, is to begin Wednesday, February 5. The program book for the first week of racing has been issued on the basis of five races daily. Of the thirty races provided in the book, thirteen are for purses of $200 and seventeen for purses of $150. This will be light picking compared with that afforded by the richer New Orleans purses and stakes, but the considerable list of horses already in preparation for removal to Tampa are those that would not be likely to have much chance of winning at New Orleans and many of them may do very well at Tampa if the meeting lasts long. Being experimental, its duration is a problem awaiting solution. Its promoters think it will pay sufficiently well.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DONATES CUP.

It is reported that President Roosevelt has donated to the Washington Jockey Club a handsome silver service to be awarded the winner of a special race for registered thoroughbreds ridden by commissioned army officers and to be run at the Benning track next spring. This is in line with the recommendation he recently made to Major-General Bell for special training for army officers in equitation and cross-country riding.

TWO-YEAR-OLDS NOW AT NEW ORLEANS.

Characteristics of Those Which Have Shown In Public—Chapultepec's Superiority.

New Orleans, La., January 6.—The two-year-olds that have so far shown in the juvenile races here are an exceptionally well grown lot, with some few exceptions, for this season of the year. In the early days of two-year-old racing here the fields were made up of small-sized Texas-bred ones and the culls from yearling sales in the east and west. Of recent years, however, with largely increased winning opportunities, a much better type of the baby racer has been brought here to be developed and trained in winter racing, and it is likely that the two-year-olds now racing at the local tracks would compare favorably in point of size and substance with the young thoroughbreds in the big eastern stables.

The best that have been seen to date are J. Whitlaw's Irfaneh, winner of the initial juvenile race on New Year's day, Burlew & O'Neill's Shone, winner of the second race on the following day and judging by conformation and style rather than by performance, H. McCarren, Jr.'s Roseburg II., which finished third to Shone, R. Tucker's Maritza and A. H. & D. H. Morris' Cunning. Much was expected of these latter two in their maiden efforts, but both of them were knocked back and so entirely out of contention at barrier's rise that but little opinion could be formed of their running quality. Cunning is a bay filly by Chilton—Prestidigitatrice, a fairly good race mare that was bred and raced by the Morris Brothers. She is a stoutly built filly of good size and a breedy, game looking type. She had worked well and trainer Walden, who invariably trots out one or two fast ones every season down here, may not be at all mistaken in his opinion that this is a real good filly.

Maritza is a brown colt by Nasturtium—Merrily, trained for Tucker by H. C. Riddle. So much had been said of this youngster's trials and in appearance he so well bore out the good things that had been said of him, that he was a very pronounced favorite for his race, in his maiden effort. Like Cunning, which was crowded right back within half a dozen strides after the start, Martiza had no chance whatever by the time the field was in motion. Naturally Nicol did not persevere with him, but under a tight rein he strode so freely and passed his near competitors so easily, as to make it all the more regrettable that he did not get away well enough to have an opportunity to show what he could do.

Shone is a chestnut gelding by Shapfell—Onega. He is a stout, deep-barreled sort, one that looks like he might develop into a rugged campaigner, game and evidently a more than useful youngster.

Irfaneh is a strapping, big, rangy bay filly by Mesmerist—La Cheviot. This is a strongly built long striding filly and is pretty certain to quite hold her own in early local racing. The chief fault to be found with her is that she is now almost as big as a three-year-old. She is too growthy, and lacks therefore the opportunity for continued development that a juvenile ought to have at this time of the year. Of others that have gone to the post, the irrelevantly named Holy Mass, brown filly, by Buck Massie—Holy Bird, owned by F. W. Seeley & Co. and trained by J. P. Mayberry, which was second to Irfaneh, is undersized, but a well put up, compact racy looking sort. She is all there, what there is of her, had worked about as well as any other youngster, is quick and ought certainly to be returned a winner in the early three furlongs dashes, where post manners and quickness at the start count for much. Mr. Corrigan's Anne McGee, bay filly by Marta Santa—California, is also put up on the small order, but is a fast looking one. She ran a good race and ought to do better things in the near future.

L. A. Cella's bay filly, Arionette, by Cesarion—Fonsolette, was very well backed in the first of the two-year-old races, both on her work as well as the the fact that she is a sister to the Arcadia speed marvel, Colonel Bob. She had a bit the worst of the start as compared with Irfaneh, and ran a good race. She should win one of the early purses, but, while built on speedy lines, she is a washy-looking type, hardly one that can be expected to stand much severe campaigning. In the few two-year-old races that have already been run enough of quality has been brought to notice to indicate that nothing has been exaggerated as to the class of the present local crop of youngsters.

Chapultepec picked up 123 pounds and won the New Year Handicap at one mile so easily as to make it look as though Burlew & O'Neill could have taken down the money with him in the Planters' Stakes run on the preceding Saturday, carried the penalty, and then won the feature event of New Year's day. In St. Ilario and Woodlane Chapultepec beat two very fair three-year-olds, although, of course, there was nothing in the field behind him that had any pretensions to high-class form. The Burlew & O'Neill crack broke some distance from the rail and was outrun in the first few strides by Woodlane and Dew of Dawn, which were inside of him. But he showed his better class when he went right by them around the first sharp turn, and was two lengths in front before the beginning of the journey up the backstretch. His long, sweeping, easy stride carried him along without much effort, and he had all of those behind him dead on their legs at the half-mile ground.

In the writer's opinion Chapultepec could have finished out the mile and a quarter in 2:06 without

MARIAN CASEY WINS AGAIN.

DEFEATS HEATHER SCOTT IN A CLOSELY CONTESTED FINISH.

Johnny Lyons Takes the Feature Race at Oakland— Cloyne Successful in His First Start —Stewards Vigilant.

Oakland, Cal., January 7.—Good horses were engaged in the third, fourth and sixth races at Oakland today, and form was well maintained. With the exception of the juvenile features, the reverse was the case in the running of the remainder of the card, which was devoted to nondescripts. The trio of winning favorites were respectively Marian Casey, Johnny Lyons and Cloyne. It took a superior class racer to finish in front in each instance, and the brilliant and formful racing furnished by this half of the card made amends for the upsets that monopolized the inferior division. The San Mateo Handicap at one mile was decided over a very slow track. It took Johnny Lyons, the victor, one minute and forty-four seconds to run the distance.

The racing nowadays is never wholly free from suspicious angles, and the stewards are kept busy probing into this and that reversal. M. J. Daly became conspicuous for one which developed in the closing affair of the day, won by Cloyne, because of the running of his filly, Sophomore. In her preceding start Daly's good three-year-old had forced Marian Casey out to the last ounce to beat her a head.

Today, at a very short price and backed heavily and persistently by the unsuspecting public, Sophomore was unable to raise a respectable gallop with similar going prevailing on both occasions.

Walter Miller somewhat rehabilitated himself with the race-going public by good horsemanship this afternoon. He began auspiciously for his adherents by scoring with Silver Wedding in the opening race and followed this up by good work in landing the two favorites, Marian Casey and Cloyne in front, after overcoming all kinds of hard luck in the early running of their respective races. Many horsemen who witnessed the two-year-old On Parole impressively win today's race for infant racers, predicted a brilliant career for Jack Keene's youngster. The opinion was general that he was the fastest colt in getting away from the post seen in a long time.

The alleged jockey, J. Butler, was fined $25 by the stewards for carrying Taunt wide with Huerfano on the stretch turn in the fifth race.

HAGGIN TO DISPOSE OF HIS TROTTERS.

Lexington, Ky., January 7.—After February 15, J. B. Haggin will not have a trotting horse among his equine possessions. Manager Charles H. Berryman today consigned thirty-five head, the last of the harness horses at Elmendorf, to the Kentucky Sales Company and the space at the big farm will be given over entirely to the thoroughbreds.

Secretary W. R. Letcher said today that the Kentucky Association will probably apply for ten days each for the spring and fall meetings. It will not ask for less than seven. It is understood to be the policy of the State Racing Commission to limit the total number of days for the year in Kentucky to one hundred. Under the law, however, the commission is required to grant any licensed association "at least forty days in any year, if desired."

No foals have been reported to date, but several are expected before the middle of the month at Elmendorf and McGrathiana.

Amos Turney has forwarded to the officials at New Orleans the original contract on the services of jockey Lloyd, together with the agreement with J. H. Baker that he, Turney, was to have the boy whenever called for. Turney says he intends to stop Lloyd from riding at New Orleans and will use him himself.

POOLROOM WILL TEST THE AMIS LAW.

Memphis, Tenn., January 7.—Following the death last week of state senator Amis, of Rison, Arkansas, who was vigorous in his efforts to kill betting on horse racing in the state, the poolrooms at Hopefield, Ark., directly across the river from Memphis, opened today. Odds were displayed and bets were accepted. Telegraphic communication with the New Orleans track was had. The proprietors, who are former employes of G. C. Bennett and F. P. Coleman, said they were not violating any law inasmuch as bets were sent outside the state. It is thought that the same test will be made in Arkansas as was made by bookmakers in Missouri and other states to evade the law by sending bets outside of the state by 'phone or telegraph.

BLUM AFTER MORE HORSES.

L. Blum has returned to Kentucky from Mexico, where he shipped the horses he bought last fall. Blum says he is in the market for about fifty more thoroughbreds before he makes his annual trip to Europe. Blum reports that eight of the horses he bought here last year have been entered in the Mexican Derby, which will be run for the first time at Mexico City two years hence.

NEW YORK BETTING BILLS INTRODUCED.

New York, January 7.—The Agnew bill was introduced at Albany last night and sent to the Codes Committee. It can hardly have a hearing before the last of the month. It moves to amend the penal code by making bookmaking and the making of wagers on a race, or anything else anywhere, a misdemeanor, with the penalty of imprisonment for a year, or a $500 fine, or both.

Also a bill was introduced to appropriate $250,000 for agriculture. This is intended to take the place of the racing tax that now goes to state and county fairs. Another bill on the same lines as the Agnew bill against race-track betting was introduced at Albany today.

Senators Grady and McCarren will lead the fight against these bills. Senator Raines is also strong against them, and the governor's idea of legislation to appropriate money direct for benefit of the fairs is regarded as impossible of being put through any legislature.

The additions today to the three big handicaps were:

Brighton—Firestone, Centre Shot, Edwin Gum, Stanley Fay. Total 57.

Brooklyn—Montgomery, Tony Faust, Uncle, Firestone. Total 50.

Suburban—Montgomery, Firestone, Edwin Gum, Tony Faust, Stanley Fay, Uncle. Total 60.

Total to 1910 Futurity, 928; to Brighton Produce, 908. The handicaps are practically complete now.

having been fully extended. This colt is not the type of a stayer, and he is not a really well-built horse. He is too light in the barrel for a horse of his size, and he lacks the depth through the shoulder that one associates with stamina and staying ability. But still he is a taking sort of horse, one that almost anyone could afford to own and not feel ashamed of the ownership. By far worse-built horses have won rich eastern three-year-old stakes. If the contention of critical turfmen be true, a contention with which the writer agrees, that Chapultepec is not a natural stayer, it is a good betting proposition that he can stay the Derby route among the kind of three-year-olds he will meet here. It looks as though he could race any Derby horse he will be pitted against to a standstill in the first half of the Derby trip, and then rate along in front to the end of the journey at his leisure. Present indications are that there is not another three-year-old here that has speed enough to live with him, which will mean when the Derby trials come on that there will be little chance for any of the contenders to take him by the throat and stick to him long enough to make him stop, even if he should be faint-hearted, something that has not yet been proved in any of his starts during the local season.

S. B. Weems.

JOCKEY MILLER'S ENGAGEMENTS.

Trainer H. E. Rowell of the Thomas H. Williams stable at Oakland, has become somewhat soured on the proposition of making outside riding engagements for the stable rider, Walter Miller, who has taken a slump in his work during the past few weeks. The followers and admirers of the 'marvelous' jockey are impoverished in pocket and most of them have eliminated him as the controlling factor in their systems of selecting winners. Even Miller's mother, who is said to consistently back all of his mounts, has lost heavily of late, sufficiently to cause her to back only those horses seemingly having a chance to win regardless of the rider. Rowell says but for his deference to the wishes of his employer, he would have long ago delegated to some one else the task of securing mounts for Miller.

"If I could pick four or five winners a day and could get Miller on them it would be all right," says Rowell, "but when it comes to asking an owner who wants the boy all about his horse, I balk. I would not do that for Miller or any other jockey. My son-in-law was a first-class rider himself, and was right at the top of the list when he rode in England, and he never wanted to know all about a horse before he would accept a mount. He was not riding against 'dubs' either, but secured his standing against boys like Tod Sloan, Maher, Spencer and they certainly would class up with Miller. With him it was first come, first served, and he just laughs at the idea of a jockey wanting some kind of assurance that a horse has a winning chance before he will accept a mount." From which it may be inferred that Miller is a bit overparticular about the engagements made for him.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ex-jockey Charles Vandusen, who went to Los Angeles last October for the benefit of his health, is reported to be in very poor condition.

It is reported that J. O. Keene has been offered a yearly retainer of $15,000 to take charge as trainer of one of the largest eastern stables. He refused, the report says, to entertain the offer.

Louis Stuart has seven head of horses in his stable at Sheepshead Bay which he is training for L. O. Appleby. They are six two-year-olds, four colts and two fillies and the five-year-old horse, Sadler. The two-year-olds are all of Appleby's own breeding at his Silverbrook Farm near Eatontown, N. J.

Lawrence & Comstock have retired their stallion, The Fog, a chestnut horse by Magnet—Tenebrae, to their stock farm in Placer County, Cal., after three starts at Santa Anita Park. The Fog, which is eight years old, on the day of his last start, had a filly by him out of La Hindos as a starter in the two-year-old race.

W. 2, St. Louis, Mo. The bet on Doubt should be paid. There is no sensible ground for the bookmaker's contention.

Foster, St. Louis, Mo. The place and show bet on Burning Bush was a draw, there being no separate odds against him.

S. P., Cincinnati, O. The wager should be paid in full. It was a peculiar case standing alone and the rule referred to did not apply.

Winner—B. f, by Vesuvian—Chryseo (trained by V. H. Terry).

Went to post at 3:23. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Rosy Light, after being reserved under a pull in the early running, came through on the inside in the stretch and made good decisively. Taunt ran well, but was carried to the extreme outside on the last turn and failed to get up. Maxtress set the early pace and dropped back on the last turn, then came again with a rush right at the end. Huerfano showed speed, but went hopelessly wide on the stretch turn, then swerved across the track and was anchored in the inside deep going. Midmont was a prominent contender for six furlongs. Alaric was quickly shuffled to the rear. Lone Wolf seemed unable to raise a respectable gallop. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—72541 Red Ball, 109; 72560 Huzzah, 109.

Went to post at 3:52. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second easily; third the same. Cloyne, from an inside flatfooted start, was outpaced early and forced to come through in the deepest going on the far turn, but drew out with a rush in the last furlong and was best. Marian Louise was a forward and extra game contender throughout. Carmelina ran within striking distance in the outside good going, finished well and is improving. Sophomore showed brief speed in the middle running, but was taken into the deepest going and quit. Amada was prominent for half the journey. Natoma showed superior early speed and was short.

Overweights—Natoma, 3 pounds.

Time, 12⅕, 25⅕, 38⅘.

Winner—Ch. f, by Fatherless—Eostre (trained by J. Capo).

Went to post at 2:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Alice broke slowly, but had clear sailing and, finishing fast, although going wide, wore the leaders down and won drawing clear. Cunning, poorly ridden and away on the extreme outside, ran a good race and was unlucky to lose. Mrs. Sewall had no mishaps and showed the most early speed, but tired in the closing strides. Arionette, prominent most of the way and forcing the early pace, quit in the last sixteenth. Holy Mass was in the worst going all the way. Miss Hapsburg ran a good race and, with stronger riding, would have been closer up. The others ran green.

Scratched—72562 Lightning Flash, 110; 72562 Gloriole, 110.

Winner—Blk. f, by Ruskin II.—Wagnet (trained by B. Hurd).

Went to post at 2:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Broken Melody ran as if much the best in the going, was away slowly, but closed a big gap steadily, although going wide and, finishing gamely, won easing up. Mazonia also closed a gap and came with a rush after a slow beginning. Stella Perkins was an easy second when a sixteenth out, but her rider became careless, threw second place away and would have been beaten out in another stride for third place. Etta M. was gaining fast at the end and would have been third in another stride. Constantia ran in the worst going through the stretch and tired badly after showing the most speed for three furlongs. Grace George quit badly in the last quarter. Edith M. ran a good half. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Overweights—Broken Melody, 2 pounds; Constantia, 3.

Winner—B. f, by Hastings—Nineveh (trained by J. Garson).

Went to post at 2:59. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Nancy, favored by the going and running to her best form, closed a big gap gradually and, wearing Snow Ball down in the last sixteenth, won going away. Snow Ball, showing the most early speed, raced Zinfandel into defeat in the first half, but tired and swerved to the inner rail in the stretch drive. Caper lacked early speed, but came gamely at the end. Tyrolian was taken wide throughout and was gaining at the end. Tres Joli can do much better. Tinker trailed far back in the early running and closed a big gap in the stretch. Zinfandel showed speed, but quit badly in the stretch run. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Overweights—Tres Joli, 1½ pounds; Zinfandel, 1½.

Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Miss Delaney, saved from the early pace and kept in the best going throughout, came fast in the last quarter and, wearing Al Muller and Hyperion II. down in the last furlong, won drawing away. Al Muller, poorly ridden and suffering from much interference, ran well, but tired in the last furlong. Hyperion II. stumbled frequently and was sharply impeded several times in the first half, then challenged gamely in the stretch, but tired near the end. Black Burn ran a good race. Frank Lord tired after forcing the early pace. Royal Income went well. Glen Roy can do better.

Winner—B. g, by Daniel—Florence Darling (trained by W. F. Perkins).

Went to post at 3:57. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Darling Dan, after being reserved for a half, moved up with a rush and, joining the leaders, forced the pace to the stretch turn, where he swung into the good going and, standing the final drive gamely, just lasted long enough. Banridge, under weak riding, ran a good race, was unlucky to lose and but for being kept too far back in the early running, would have won. Brakespeare finished with a great rush and would have won in a few more strides. Major Mack was in active contention from the start and finished fairly well. George H. White dropped out of the front rank after setting the pace for three-quarters. Caucus showed a brief flash of early speed. Phil Chinn was almost thrown on the first turn.

BURLEW'S MANY TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Fred Burlew has twenty-three two-year-olds wintering at the Gravesend track in charge of trainer Joseph Kelly. Frank Regan also has a splendid colt in the Kelly stable which has been registered as Donator, and for which Regan is said to have refused several tempting offers. The Burlew band consists of four colts, eleven geldings and eight fillies, and all of them have been named with the Jockey Club. Trainer Kelly is giving the youngsters regular work on the track, led by the gigantic black three-year-old colt, Black Oak. Yankee Tourist, High Hat, Musical Man and The Earl are reputed to be very fast and will probably be reared for early spring racing. IRON HORSE OF ENGLAND.

In writing of sturdy performers of the English turf in days gone by, Vigilant of the Sportsman has this of Vulcan, which ran two races in one day on two occasions:

"A French coup for the Lincolnshire Handicap was but partially realized in 1871, when, carrying the chocolate, red sleeves and black cap of M. H. Delamarre, Veranda, three years old, seventy-eight pounds, divided with Mr. Winchester's Vulcan, aged, ninety-two pounds. That was a memorable finish, and the race is worthy of special mention by reason of what was afterwards accomplished by the old horse, for before the year was out he proved himself to be one of the best horses in training, and became known as the "iron horse." He would seem to have been unlucky not to have garnered all instead of half the spoils, and "Mr. Lombard"—which nom de course then veiled the identity of Mr. C. J. Lefevre—must have been imbued with the same opinion, for he bought him forthwith, and it was in the blue, white and red hoops that the son of Thunderbolt and Alarum, with Fred Webb on his back and carrying ten pounds extra, won the Nottingham Spring Handicap two days later, the Lincoln and Liverpool meetings having clashed in that year.

"George Fordham first made acquaintance with the old horse at the Newmarket Craven meeting, and marked the occasion by scoring a 'double' on him on the Wednesday, winning first a plate of $250 and then a subscription plate over the T. Y. O. course. At the First Spring meeting the same combination was to the fore in a plate of $500, and again in an Experimental Handicap, in which he gave eighteen pounds to Wheat Ear."
